Class Song

We're leaving you dear old Celeste
These last twelve years were truly our best
It makes us sad to go away
But we must travel our own separate ways.

We'll ne'er forget our friends so near
And all the things we cherish so dear
As time will pass and life goes on
Dear old Celeste will remain our home.

Judy Smith

Class Poem

Our Senior Year is here at last
Twelve long years lie in the past
Without fear we face life's test
For you have taught us well, dear ole Celeste.

Our hearts are heavy, our eyes full of tears
As now we look back over the years
Though trying at times, these years were best
For these were the years at dear ole Celeste.

We now go forth, our goals to attain
But fond memories of you will remain
With trust in God; our heads held high,
We bid to you, dear ole Celeste...Goodbye...

DICKY LIPPARD

Class History

In the fall of 1951, thirty-four boys and girls took their first step on the ladder of growing into men and women of tomorrow. That first step was entering the first grade at Celeste Henkel High School. The new students were: Kenneth Adams, Joyce Arey, Evelyn Benfield, David Byers, Donald Byers, Troy Combs, John Cook, Steve Dagenhart, Jerry Davidson, Brenda Sue Deal, Johnny Gregory, Dwight Isenhour, Sherry Johnson, David Lackey, Judy Lowrance, Bill Martin, Tommy Mayer, Dianne Miller, Eddie Miller, John Miller, Ronald Miller, Steve Patterson, Harry Plott, Gladys Pope, Harry Pope, Danny Rimmer, Ailene Rumble, Jerry Sharpe, Medford Smith, Willard Stewart, Carl Teaster, LaRae Weston, Sharon Williams, and John Wooten.

Through the guidance and leadership of our teachers, we grew each year and progressed in understanding the world about us. During these years in elementary school we lost many of our classmates but the loss was balanced with a gain of new classmates and friends.

The next step was finishing our elementary school days with the important class trip to Raleigh in the eighth grade. And for the students of Sharon School, the many memories of their graduation.

The third step was one of the most important steps. That step being the one into the 9th grade and taking our role as members of the high school student body.

The highlight of our Sophomore year was the biology trip to Linville Caverns where everyone saw nature's truly beautiful sights.

We suddenly realize that time moved fast and we are Juniors with the responsibility of a Jr.-Sr. banquet on our hands. We began to work at selling, a car wash, a square dance, and our class play, "THE CUSTERS' LAST STAND" —to procure the needed funds. On May 11, 1962, our hopes and dreams for our banquet came alive with "A Night in Holland."

The glories of being Seniors, which once seemed so very far off, fell upon us. The tangible objects of being Seniors also came to us with the arrival of our rings: the hard work of preparing our annuals, the senior play, and planning our trip to Washington, D.C. and New York.

The next step after our graduation from high school is yet to be found. But with our background we should be able to look forward to the top of our ladder to see that we will certainly take our place in the world.

Senior Class — 1963

S is for school, our dear CHS.
May our days here always be blessed.
E is for education, our purpose for being here.
Our years of acquiring knowledge were fun and full of cheer.
N is for now, and fast-flying days.
Soon we must go our separate ways.
I is for indebted, and that we surely are—
To all our teachers who have led us thus far.
O is for overjoyed with thoughts of days gone by.
Those have been our best years, this fact we can't deny.
R is for our realization of the challenges which lie ahead.
But we shall face them with courage, let it now be said.

C is for classmates, we love and cherish each one.
We've laughed, worked and played together, just think of all the fun!
L is for lower classmen, we hope they won't forget—
The many examples that we have tried so hard to set.
A is for affection, this feeling we all share—
For our dear old alma mater, there's no equal anywhere.
S is for the sorrow which will fill every heart.
The night on which we graduate, yes the night on which we part.
S is for successful and this we hope to be—
Celeste will be proud of us, everyone will see!
Although we soon will leave, may we forever be,
As happy as we are now, in 1963!

CELESTE HENKEL WINS CVC CROWN

The top two teams of the Catawba Valley Conference, spearheaded in a brilliant individual dual by a pair of fascinating backfield aces, battled in a hard-hitting tilt as Celeste Henkel grabbed the final conference crown away from Oak Hill of Lenoir, 14-13.
